
28 SQL Practice Questions on Superstore Dataset

◆ Aggregate Functions

1. Find the total sales, total profit, and average discount for each region.
2. Get the top 5 customers by total sales.
3. Find the subcategory with the highest average profit margin (Profit/Sales).
4. Retrieve the total number of orders per category.
5. Find the customer with the maximum number of orders.

◆ WHERE Clause

6. Retrieve all orders where the discount is greater than 0.5.
7. List all orders placed by customers whose name starts with 'S'.
8. Get all sales transactions where ship mode is not 'Standard Class'.
9. Find all products where the sales amount is between 500 and 1000.
10. Display all orders that belong to the 'Technology' category and shipped in 'First Class'.

◆ HAVING Clause

11. Find categories with an average discount greater than 0.3.
12. Show customers who have placed more than 10 orders.
13. Get regions where the total profit is negative.
14. Find subcategories where the sum of sales exceeds 50,000.
15. Retrieve states that have more than 50 customers.

◆ Text Functions

16. Display the first 5 characters of each product name.
 17. Find customers whose names contain 'Smith' (case-insensitive).
 18. Create a column showing Order ID in uppercase.
 19. Extract the last word from product names (e.g., "Office Chair").
 20. Count how many customers have a space in their name.
-

◆ Date Functions

21. Find the total sales per month in 2019.
 22. Retrieve the year with the highest number of orders.
 23. Find the quarter with the maximum profit.
 24. Calculate the average delivery days between `Order Date` and `Ship Date`.
 25. List orders placed on a weekend (Saturday or Sunday).
-

◆ COALESCE & CASE WHEN

26. Replace all missing `Postal Code` values with 'NA' using COALESCE.
27. Categorize customers based on sales:
 - High Value if sales > 10,000
 - Medium Value if sales between 5,000–10,000
 - Low Value otherwise
28. Use `CASE WHEN` to label orders as 'Profitable' if profit > 0, else 'Loss'.